

Trip suggestion from Castellammare di Stabia Route 1

Destination from:	to:
Castellammare di Stabia	Sorrento
Sorrento	Capri
Capri	Positano
Positano	Amalfi
Amalfi	Castellammare di Stabia

Location descriptions

Sorrent

The first thing you notice about Sorrento, arriving there by sea, is the extraordinary beauty of the old buildings and hotels overlooking the sea, set on the cliffs that mark the entire perimeter of the town. An unusual image of extraordinary beauty.

Going ashore you can go towards the centre of town and admire all the other attractions of Sorrento, from the Villa Comunale to the beautiful streets of the centre, full of characteristic shops and restaurants offering Sorrentine culinary specialities.

Sorrento is famous for its gastronomic specialities and, above all, for a particular liqueur, the „limoncello“, produced with the lemons of the Sorrento peninsula.

The centre of Sorrento is Piazza Tasso, where the main events take place. Not far away is the Villa Comunale. In the surroundings you can find large underground car parks to leave your car because we remind you that the centre is a pedestrian zone. In addition to the historical centre, there is the port of Sorrento, where ferries and hydrofoils call every day. Then there is the little fishermen's port with its trattorias by the sea. Here you can see the famous house of Sofia Loren used for the scene of the film „Bread, Love and Fantasy“. Another stop is the Bagni della Regina Giovanna, jagged rocks overlooking the blue sea.

Capri

Capri has always been considered the queen of the Phlegrean Islands, those that are part of the Gulf of Naples. Always a magnet for high-class international tourism in search of unforgettable experiences, Capri should be put on your list of trips to Italy at least once in your life. Capri will always amaze you and every corner will leave you speechless: here is what to see on the island.

Capri, close enough to both Naples and Sorrento, is really strategically located, ideal to visit if you are in the area but also to consider as a unique destination for a unique and unforgettable trip. Its beaches, the Faraglioni rocks, the famous Piazzetta which has been the backdrop for films and much gossip in the past, a special social life: these are just some of the things you can do on Capri during a holiday.

Positano

Positano's main beach is Marina Grande, lined on one side by the pier where boats dock and on the other by Music on the Rocks, the most famous disco on the coast. The promenade is lined with restaurants, bars and clubs where you can enjoy a drink while admiring the sunset or where you can dine by the sea. There is also a second beach, Fornillo, which is smaller and more private and has been awarded the Green Flag as a family-friendly beach and the prestigious Blue Flag by FEE Italy. From this beach, you can also admire the Trasita Tower, an ancient watchtower built at the behest of the viceroy of Naples.

Amalfi

Visiting the Amalfi Coast is a unique experience, especially if you decide to do it by sea. In fact, this stretch of coastline is one of the most beautiful in Italy, full of breathtaking landscapes, corners of paradise and wonders to be discovered, including dream beaches, history and culture. In spring, but especially in summer, this stretch of coastline becomes a concentration of sun, sea, historical monuments and festivals.

Please note that this is just a possible trip suggestion. Italy offers a a lot of bathing stops and sailing opportunities. Please adapt your individual route to the given wind and weather conditions.

Also use mySea - the free and practical online guide - as an app or simply via internet for your trip planning: www-my-Sea.com

With this free digital travel guide you will quickly find everything about sailing areas, safe bays, idyllic harbors, good restaurants ... Book your berths in marinas and buoy fields easily online. Reserve the place in the marina simply via the app and enjoy more time on the sea. With thousands of pictures and tips, mySea is the perfect cruising companion.

All information without guarantee. Errors and mistakes excepted.

Have fun on your trip
Yours Pitter Yachtcharter team